

Going to school

Going to school or college helps you to learn to become independent.

At school or college you will be helped to share your views about the help that you need.

We go to school to learn.

We go to school to make friends.

We go to school or college so that when we get older we can get a job

We learn to travel safely

